BARGING THROUGH AMERICA®

America's Junction

Cincinnati Round Trip

October 16-23, 2008 ▶ 8 Days

Ohio River ▶ 410 River Miles

Rare on the River-Fall Foliage and Fillies

This 8 day
Rare on the River excursion provides an insider's trot

through Kentucky's horse country during the peak of fall color.

Your excursion starts with an overnight stay in Cincinnati, Ohio. Visit Fountain Square and try a bowl of 5-way chili. You'll enjoy the awe-inspiring beauty of the Ohio River with a passage through Meldahl Lock before our arrival to historic Ripley, Ohio, where we'll have an overnight stay. Visit the Rankin House, part of the Underground Railroad and shop in this quaint river town. Enjoy a day trip to the horse races at Keeneland Race Course. We'll pass through Greenup and R.C. Byrd Locks before our arrival in Point Pleasant, W.Va., where we'll have an overnight stay. Point Pleasant is the oldest town on the Ohio River and site of the Battle of Point Pleasant. We'll enjoy an overnight stay in Huntington, W.Va. Visit the Heritage Farm Museum and Village. Explore "America's hometown," Portsmouth, Ohio, the birthplace of Roy Rogers. We'll have an overnight stay. Don't miss the colorful murals painted on the flood wall. Your excursion ends in Cincinnati, Ohio, with sightseeing and fun. Enjoy foliage, fillies and fun in the part of the country where North meets South and East meets West: America's Junction.

See America... Differently!

RiverBarge Excursion Lines, Inc., specializes in adventure, taking you to places that are off the beaten path. Places that the interstate bypassed, where a river has defined the culture and given a region a sense of place.
